A Womans Diary 2015 Calendar:

Women, Literature and Finance in Victorian Britain Nancy Henry, 2018-08-30 Women Literature and Finance in Victorian Britain Cultures of Investment defines the cultures that emerged in response to the democratization of the stock market in nineteenth century Britain when investing provided access to financial independence for women Victorian novels represent those economic networks in realistic detail and are preoccupied with the intertwined economic and affective lives of characters Analyzing evidence about the lives of real investors together with fictional examples including case studies of four authors who were also investors Nancy Henry argues that investing was not just something women did in Victorian Britain it was a distinctly modern way of thinking about independence risk global communities and the future in general

Time in Diaries of Court and Bakufu Officials in the late 13th Century Alexandra Ciorciaro, 2024-11-04 Human existence is fundamentally defined by time Throughout history and across cultures societies have negotiated time in various ways This monograph studies temporality as it emerges from diaries produced by government officials during the late thirteenth century in Japan thereby contributing a perspective gleaned from non literary texts to the study of time in the social sphere of noble elites in the Kamakura period In synthesising different approaches to the study of time it analyses various aspects of time to obtain a comprehensive picture of how time is expressed in these diaries scrutinise the time practices that they disclose and reflect on related conceptualisations and evaluations of time The monograph argues that we may discern a plurality of coexisting modes of time and that certain aspects and concerns took precedence over others in different situations depending on the symbolic forms that dominated them As part of the Time in Medieval Japan TIMEJ research project of the University of Zurich this research aims to contribute to a more nuanced understanding of medieval Japan as multi faceted society with diverse approaches to time

Moving Women Moving Objects (400-1500) Tracy Chapman Hamilton, Mariah Proctor-Tiffany, 2019-08-12 This collection forges new ground in the discussion of aristocratic and royal women their relationships with their objects and medieval geography It explores how women s geographic and familial networks spread well beyond the borders that defined men s sense of region and how the movement of their belongings can reveal essential information about how women navigated these often disparate spaces Beginning in early medieval Scandinavia ranging from Byzantium to Rus and multiple lands in Western Europe up to 1500 the essays span a great spatio temporal range Moreover the types of objects extend from traditionally studied works like manuscripts and sculpture to liturgical and secular ceremonial instruments icons and articles of personal adornment such as textiles and jewelry even including shoes

Mapping the 'I', 2014-11-13 In Mapping the I Research on Self Narratives in Germany and Switzerland the contributors working with egodocuments autobiographies diaries family chronicles and related texts discuss various approaches to early modern concepts of the person and of personhood the place of individuality within this context genre and practices of writing The volume documents the cooperation between the Berlin and Basel self narrative research groups during its first phase 2000 2007 Next to addressing crucial methodological issues it also demonstrates the richness of egodocuments as historical sources in contributions concentrating for example on the body and illness on food as well as on the early modern economy group cultures and autobiographical considerations of one's own suicide Contributors include Andreas Bahr Fabian Brändle Lorenz Heiligensetzer Angela Heimen Gabriele Jancke Gudrun Piller Sophie Ruppel Thomas M. Girls of Summer David Tossell, 2016-04-15 The year 2015 was a historic one for the England women's cricket team their first full year as professional players and with every ball of their Ashes series live on television and radio As the dramatic events of the summer unfolded David Tossell was given exclusive access to follow at close quarters from freezing training mornings in the dead of winter to the dressing room and team meetings in the heat of battle against Australia Under the guidance of a coach who cared deeply about their performance and welfare a diverse group of girls came together in the pursuit of international glory and personal achievement united by a remarkable love for each other and a passion for their profession As The Girls of Summer reveals they would need every piece of resilience and resolve those bonds could offer With a foreword by England captain Charlotte Edwards Cambridge Handbook of Psychology, Health and Medicine Carrie D. Llewellyn,Susan Ayers,Chris McManus,Stanton Newman,Keith J. Petrie,Tracey A. Revenson,John Weinman,2019-05-16 This third edition of the much acclaimed Cambridge Handbook of Psychology Health and Medicine offers a fully up to date comprehensive accessible one stop resource for doctors health care professionals mental health care professionals such as psychologists counsellors specialist nurses academics researchers and students specializing in health across all these fields The new streamlined structure of the book features brief section overviews summarising the state of the art of knowledge on the topic to make the information easier to find The encyclopaedic aspects of the Handbook have been retained all the entries as well as the extensive references have been updated Retaining all the virtues of the original this edition is expanded with a range of new topics such as the effects of conflict and war on health and wellbeing advancements in assisted reproduction technology e health interventions patient reported outcome measures health behaviour change interventions and implementing changes into health care practice Like Father, Like Son Rod Fisher,2024 This study evolved from the author s examination of a series of sketches undertaken by a young Englishman during his sojourn in Brisbane the seat of government of the newly created Colony of Queensland Initial research revealed a somewhat hazy outline of his ancestry and early life until an independent researcher in the UK preparing a photographic study of his subsequent built legacy discovered a key piece of the jigsaw This book is the culmination of the author s subsequent research carried out in three corners of the globe which now shines a definitive light on the lineage of Richard Harding Watt He was a wealthy business man and developer of a number of distinctive heritage listed buildings in Knutsford perhaps best known as the model for Elizabeth Gaskell s novel Cranford Handbook on Inequality and COVID-19 Kenneth A. Couch,2025-03-12 In this comprehensive Handbook Kenneth Couch brings together expert contributors to provide insights into the impact of COVID 19 on new and pre existing inequalities in health work and education While sharper impacts on pre existing cross group disparities were often resolved by vaccinations and the lifting of restrictions this important work indicates that in many respects disadvantaged groups will endure lasting negative effects from the pandemic Just the Usual Work Michael Boudreau,Bonnie Huskins,2021-02-19 Born in 1907 Ida Martin spent most of her life in Saint John New Brunswick She married a longshoreman named Allan Robert Martin in 1932 and they had one daughter In the years that followed Ida had a busy and varied life full of work caring for her family and living her faith Through it all Ida found time to keep a daily diary from 1945 to 1992 Bonnie Huskins is Ida Martin s granddaughter In Just the Usual Work she and Michael Boudreau draw on Ida s diaries family memories and the history of Atlantic Canada to shed light on the everyday life of a working class housewife during a period of significant social and political change They examine Ida s observations about the struggles of making ends meet on a longshoreman's salary the labour confrontations at the Port of Saint John the role of automobiles in the family economy the importance of family faith and political engagement and her experience of widowhood and growing old Ida Martin's diaries were often read by members of her family to reconstruct and relive their shared histories By sharing the pages of her diaries with a wider audience Just the Usual Work keeps Ida's memory alive while continuing her abiding commitment to documenting the past and finding meaning in the rhythms of everyday life Empire, Incorporated Philip J. Stern, 2023-05-16 Brilliant ambitious and often surprising A remarkable contribution to the current global debate about Empire and a small masterpiece of research and conceptual reimagining William Dalrymple author of The Anarchy The East India Company Corporate Violence and The Pillage of an Empire An award winning historian places the corporation more than the Crown at the heart of British colonialism arguing that companies built and governed global empire raising questions about public and private power that were just as troubling four hundred years ago as they are today Across four centuries from Ireland to India the Americas to Africa and Australia British colonialism was above all the business of corporations Corporations conceived promoted financed and governed overseas expansion making claims over territory and peoples while ensuring that British and colonial society were invested quite literally in their ventures Colonial companies were also relentlessly controversial frequently in debt and prone to failure The corporation was well suited to overseas expansion not because it was an inevitable juggernaut but because like empire itself it was an elusive contradiction public and private person and society subordinate and autonomous centralized and diffuse immortal and precarious national and cosmopolitan a legal fiction with very real power Breaking from traditional histories in which corporations take a supporting role by doing the dirty work of sovereign states in exchange for commercial monopolies Philip Stern argues that corporations took the lead in global expansion and administration Whether in sixteenth century Ireland and North America or the Falklands in the early 1980s corporations were key players And as Empire Incorporated makes clear venture colonialism did not cease with the end of empire Its legacies continue to raise questions about corporate power that are just as relevant today as they were 400 years ago Challenging conventional wisdom about where power is held on a global scale Stern complicates the supposedly firm distinction between private enterprise and the state offering a new history of the British Empire as well as a new history of the corporation Oxford Textbook of Geriatric Medicine Jean-Pierre Michel, B. Lynn Beattie, Finbarr C. Martin, Jeremy D. Walston, 2018 The third edition of the definitive international reference book on all aspects of the medical care of older persons will provide every physician involved in the care of older patients with a comprehensive resource on all the clinical problems they are likely to encounter as well as on related psychological philosophical and social issues Frontiers in Developmental and Life-Course Criminology Catia Malvaso, Tara Renae Mcgee, Ross Homel, 2023-11-24 Frontiers in Developmental and Life Course Criminology advances the field of developmental and life course criminology DLC by highlighting some recent methodological innovations and exploring the ways in which

DLC criminologists are helping to bridge the gap between science and service by their engagement with policymakers and government and non government agencies The book is united by three related themes the use of new data sources including government administrative data systems the development of intervention and prevention strategies grounded in DLC research and resilience prosocial behaviour and strengths based approaches This book opens up new possibilities for the future of DLC research orienting the DLC field as one that prioritises the achievement of better outcomes for individuals and society
