Abandonment To Divine Providence 1921:

Abandonment To Divine Providence (1921) Jean-Pierre De Caussade, 2006 The Rev Jean Pierre de Caussade was one of the most remarkable spiritual writers of the Society of Jesus in France in the 18th Century His death took place at Toulouse in 1751 His works have gone through many editions and have been republished and translated into several foreign languages The present book gives an English translation of the tenth French Edition of Fr de Caussade's Abandon a la Providence Divine edited to the great benefit of many souls by Fr H Ramiere S J A portion of this remarkable work in English has already appeared in America but many readers to whom this precious little book has become a favourite will welcome a complete translation especially as what has already appeared in the English version may be considered as merely the theoretical part whilst the Letters of Direction which form the greater portion of the present work give the practical part They answer objections solve difficulties and give practical advice The book thus gains considerably in value and utility

The Seat of Consciousness in Ancient Literature Richard E. Lind, 2015-01-09 For early civilizations consciousness and the sense of self were experienced as located in the center of the body most often near to or within the physical heart Enlightenment was understood as the illumination of a transformed spiritual heart Thus the mind of the body as a whole was represented by the heart soul In contrast modern culture places consciousness within the brain resulting in a mind body dualism This separation of mind and body has recently been emphasized as characteristic of the psychopathologies of the modern self This volume explores the understanding and experience of consciousness in the earliest civilizations before about 500 BCE Beginning with a description of ancient Western and Eastern heart consciousness the psychological and spiritual manifestations of the ancient mature heart soul are summarized Ancestor worship lineage identity primitive consciousness and the ways in which the external world was mirrored by the inner world provide additional clues about the experience of heart consciousness Finally the work addresses the fundamental changes in the experience of consciousness that led to the mind body dualism of today
