Arbitration in Belgium Niuscha Bassiri, Maarten Draye, 2016-03-24 Despite the obvious advantages accruing from its central location and the presence of the EU institutions in its capital city Brussels Belgium has never fully fulfilled its potential to emerge as an attractive jurisdiction for international arbitration Now however with the adoption in 2013 of an entirely new arbitration law and the accompanying overhaul of the rules of CEPANI the Belgian Centre for Arbitration and Mediation Brussels is poised to progress rapidly towards the top rank of European and global seats of arbitration This is the first comprehensive treatise in English to provide practical guidance to arbitration practitioners in house counsel and judges on how to conduct arbitrations in Belgium To facilitate its use it is structured as an article by article commentary on the 2013 Law addressing the following aspects of each article the purpose of the provision comparison with the UNCITRAL Model Law on Commercial Arbitration party autonomy issues of costs and interplay with the rules of other major arbitration institutions and the New York Convention The core of each article commentary is an in depth analysis that provides recommendations to practitioners and judges The analysis goes beyond the contents of the commented article and deals with related issues that are not addressed expressly in the Law but may be of relevance for the issues covered in the provision in question Arbitration professionals will find here convincing evidence of the liberal system for arbitration now prevailing in Belgium along with rules that reflect the most recent trends in international practice The description and analysis offered are sure to contribute to the recognition of Belgium as a global arbitral jurisdiction

Handbook on Legal Cultures Sören Koch, Marius Mikkelsen, 2023-05-30 Cooperation across borders requires both knowledge of and understanding of different cultures This is especially true when it comes to the law This handbook is the first to comprehensively present selected legal cultures based on a very specific set of structural elements which can be found in all such cultures Legal cultures are a product of and impacted by certain fundamental and commonly shared ideas on and expectations of the law In all modern societies these ideas are to a certain degree institutionalized or at least embedded in institutionalized practices These practices determine the way lawyers are educated and apply the law how they engage with the ongoing internationalization of law and what kind of values they adhere to Looking at these elements separately enables the reader to identify similarities and differences and to explain them contextually Understanding these general features of legal cultures can help avoid misunderstandings or misinterpretations of foreign law and its application Accordingly this handbook is a necessary starting point for all kinds of legal comparative studies conducted by academics students judges and other legal practitioners

A Practitioner's Guide to Maritime Boundary Delimitation Stephen Fietta, Robin Cleverly, 2016 This book provides a user friendly and practical guide to the modern law of maritime boundary delimitation The law of maritime boundaries has seen substantial evolution in recent decades The book provides a comprehensive overview of the law in this field and its development through the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea which set out the framework of the modern law in 1982 The Convention itself has since been substantially built upon and clarified by a series of judicial and arbitral decisions in boundary disputes between sovereign states which themselves also built upon earlier case law The book dissects each of the leading international judgments and awards since the North Sea Continental Shelf Cases in 1969 providing a full analysis of the issues and context in each case explaining their fundamental importance to shaping the law The book provides forty clear technical illustrations to carefully demonstrate the key issues at stake in this complex area of law Technological developments in the exploitation of maritime natural resources including oil and gas have provided a significant impetus for recent boundary disputes as they have made the resources found in remote areas of the ocean and seabed more accessible. However, these resources cannot effectively be exploited at the moment as hundreds of maritime boundaries worldwide remain undelimited. The book therefore complements the legal considerations raised with substantial technical input. It also identifies key issues in maritime delimitation which have yet to be resolved and sets out the possible future direction the law may take in resolving them. It will be a unique and valuable resource for lawyers involved in cases involving maritime delimitation and scholars and students of the law of the sea.

Arbitration and Human Rights Toms Krūmiņš, 2020-08-12

This book presents a creative synthesis of two ostensibly disparate fields of law: arbitration and human rights. More specifically, it focuses on various legislative approaches to excluding the annulment of arbitral awards, setting aside proceedings at the seat of arbitration, and evaluates the compatibility of such approaches with the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), in particular the right to a fair trial under Article 6(1). The book first assesses the applicability and impact of the ECHR, in particular Article 6(1), on international commercial arbitration. It then analyses a number of legislative approaches to excluding, setting aside proceedings, focusing on two synergetic phenomena: exclusion agreements and the total lack of setting aside proceedings in national arbitration law. Lastly, the book investigates to what extent the lack of setting aside proceedings in national arbitration law may lead to a violation of arbitrating parties' right to a fair trial under Article 6(1) and puts forward certain de lege ferenda recommendations on how to best approach the regulation of setting aside proceedings in national arbitration law from the standpoint of compliance with the ECHR.
