The Night Is for Hunting John Marsden, 2001-10-29 Hell s a big place but it gets crowded when Ellie and her friends take an uncooperative crew of orphans under their wing and into their hidden refuge It s not easy to keep four young children busy and happy in the bush and things only get worse when Ellie and Homer find evidence that mysterious visitors have discovered their sanctuary Could it be a patrol of enemy soldiers sent on a search and destroy mission They find out all too soon In a time and place where war robs your identity makes you forget your past and fear your future it seems impossible for Ellie to make sense of a world that is quickly falling apart And after a peaceful food raid turns into a nightmarish fight for survival escape back to Hell seems hopeless Ellie Fi Homer Lee and Kevin brave the worst in this electrifying continuation of their battle to stay alive and sane in a war zone that was once their home The Night Is for Hunting is the sixth book in the Tomorrow When the War Began series Australian Children's Books, 1980-2000

Marcie Muir, Kerry White, 2004 All Australian children s books published from 1989 to 2000 are listed in this essential reference for those who appreciate the richness of Australian writing for children Following the same format as volumes 1 and 2 in this series chronicling books published as early as 1774 entries include publishing details the number of illustrations and the awards received for each book This third volume follows the continuing careers of authors such as Mem Fox Bob Graham Robin Klein and Paul Jennings and traces changes in the popularity of Australian themes and settings to identify publishing trends Varied cultural aspects of modern day life are shown from globalization commercialism and the rise of the middle class in Asia to desktop publishing outcome based school curricula and the modern obsession with celebrities all of which are reflected in the type and quantity of books produced by Australian writers and publishers The wealth of included material will extend researchers understanding of the range of Australian children s books

Corporal Punishment of Children Bernadette J. Saunders, Pernilla Leviner, Bronwyn Naylor, 2018-11-26 Corporal Punishment of Children Comparative Legal and Social Developments towards Prohibition and Beyond provides insights into the views and experiences of prominent academics and political religious and human rights activists from Australia Canada Germany Ireland Israel New Zealand Norway South Africa Sweden the UK and the US Country specific and thematic insights in relation to children s ongoing experience of corporal punishment are detailed and discussed and key questions are raised and considered with a view to advancing progress towards societies in which children s human rights to dignity and optimal development are more fully recognised

Children's Literature and the Fin de Siècle Roderick McGillis, 2003-11-30 The close of a century invites both retrospection and prognostication As a period of transition it also brings a sense of uncertainty finality and apocalypticism These feelings stem from various events such as political turmoil scientific advancements and social change As might be expected literature reflects such changes and the feelings they engender But perhaps more surprisingly children s literature is especially sensitive to such matters and fiction for children often struggles with dark and unpleasant issues This book examines fin de siècle tensions in 19th and 20th century children s literature from around the world Each chapter is written by an expert contributor and the volume ranges over a disparate variety of topics These include poetry series books pacifist fiction gender issues religion and literature eco criticism minority experiences humor and the Holocaust fantasy and science fiction and computer culture In exploring these issues in relation to children s literature the contributors reveal the shifting nature of our values and the world in which we live Global in nature the chapters look at children s literature from such places as Germany Holland the United Kingdom Australia and the United States
