 Corinna Laughlin,2010-03-26 A Gospel for All Ages David M. Csinos,2022-05-03 A Gospel for All Ages lives at the intersection of two conversations preaching and intergenerational ministry By integrating these two topics an entirely new conversation emerges one that draws from both that interrogates both and that births something new in the process creating fresh possibilities for a sleepy church The fields of preaching and intergenerational ministry rarely cross paths because they are championed by two different sorts of ministerial leaders On the one hand preaching and homiletics has largely been a field for teaching pastors senior ministers and other pastoral practitioners who are tasked with the important work of proclaiming the gospel to congregations of adults every week On the other hand the cheerleaders of intergenerational ministry have tended to be ministry leaders who find their primary vocation within the formation of adolescents and children Increasing numbers of Christian educators and leaders who work in children s and youth ministry are lifting high the banner of intergenerational ministry Wherever your tent is planted in one camp or the other this book is for you If God has called you to the work of preaching you find within these pages wise words and best practices for improving and expanding your homiletical practice in light of the eight year olds and eighty year olds who share a pew on Sunday mornings If your vocation is Christian education or intergenerational ministry these chapters will spur you toward that final frontier of all age worship as you consider how your vocation can include the preaching of the gospel to young and old alike Six creative ministry professionals join author David M Csinos in providing intergenerational best practice resources Each chapter includes discussion questions and exercises for future practice The True Baptist ,1853 Door to Freedom Jana Kelley,2017-02-06 It s rough and it s smooth It s dark and it s light It s a masterpiece It s us Here in Sudan We are scared of it and drawn to it There is an open door and there is much opposition In the dusty Islamic country of Sudan Mia who is raising her family in a Muslim country has learned to boldly share her faith Rania the daughter of a wealthy Sudanese Arab seeks to find the reason for her sister s sudden disappearance Mia holds some of the answers but both women quickly discover they must each walk through their own doors to freedom the freedom that only comes when you trust God s sovereignty more than man made security Part of New Hope Publishers line of contemporary missional fiction Door to Freedom the sequel to Side by Side opens the reader s eyes to modern day persecution and the life of Muslims in Sudan Based on real life events Door to Freedom also reveals some of the struggles that Christians face when living under Islamic law The reader will be inspired to pray for those who are persecuted for their faith as well as for the salvation of the persecutors The Publishers Weekly ,1890 Faith at Home Wendy Claire Barrie,2016-10-26 Add depth and meaning your family s traditions with these basic Christian practices that nurture and enrich everyone s faith at home Home and parents are the key mechanisms by which religious faith and practice are transmitted inter generationally Recent studies indicate that the single most important factor in youth becoming committed and engaged in their religious faith as young adults is that the family talks about religion at home. However, for many parents in the United States, religious language is a foreign language. Faith at Home helps parents learn this second language and introduce it to their children in simple, meaningful, concrete ways. Parents often ask: How do we introduce prayer to our children if we do not necessarily believe prayer changes outcomes? How do we approach reading the Bible with our children when our own relationship with it is mixed or complicated? How do we talk about difficult things and where do we find God in the midst of them? How do we teach our children to make a difference in the world? How do we connect what happens at church to what happens at home? These questions and many more are addressed with talking points, practices, and resources provided for each subject.
