Sharing Cities Duncan McLaren,Julian Agyeman,2015-11-20 The future of humanity is urban and the nature of urban space enables and necessitates sharing of resources goods and services experiences Yet traditional forms of sharing have been undermined in modern cities by social fragmentation and commercialization of the public realm In Sharing Cities Duncan McLaren and Julian Agyeman argue that the intersection of cities highly networked physical space with new digital technologies and new mediated forms of sharing offers cities the opportunity to connect smart technology to justice solidarity and sustainability McLaren and Agyeman explore the opportunities and risks for sustainability solidarity and justice in the changing nature of sharing McLaren and Agyeman propose a new sharing paradigm which goes beyond the faddish sharing economy seen in such ventures as Uber and TaskRabbit to envision models of sharing that are not always commercial but also communal encouraging trust and collaboration Detailed case studies of San Francisco Seoul Copenhagen Medell n Amsterdam and Bengaluru formerly Bangalore contextualize the authors discussions of collaborative consumption and production the shared public realm both physical and virtual the design of sharing to enhance equity and justice and the prospects for scaling up the sharing paradigm through city governance They show how sharing could shift values and norms enable civic engagement and political activism and rebuild a shared urban commons Their case for sharing and solidarity offers a powerful alternative for urban futures to conventional race to the bottom narratives of competition enclosure and division

My Husband's Under Here Somewhere Janice Strubbe Wittenberg, RN, William C. Strubbe, 2017-05-01 Hoarders collect to excess filling bathtubs closets kitchens garages storage sheds floor to ceiling to render their living spaces uninhabitable They're so consumed they lose jobs family and friends homes health and occasionally their lives To the rest of us these people seem bizarre or mentally ill and we view their challenges with impatience frustration and simplistic answers Yet a true fix isn't so simple My Husband's Under Here Somewhere however strives to unearth them Morbidly fascinating tales abound as the lives of hoarders who amass animals and collectors who spin out of control are examined The science behind hoarding including its link with Obsessive Compulsive disorders as well as promising forms of treatment meet with consideration Our materialistic culture one that's obsessed with having more and more further informs the narrative Certain types of stockpiling stem from challenging life experiences A fellow who'd been imprisoned in a Russian Gulag spent the remainder of his days amassing keys Jodin a resistance fighter during World War II is a consummate saver of twine For her a possession of such insignificance once meant the difference between extinction and survival As a boy Norman's father insisted the house be kept as neat as a pin Should anything fall out of place absolutely anything and he got beaten So nowadays he thoroughly enjoys his messes and views them as a way to get even Ordinary hoarders and extreme collectors notwithstanding they're also found among the rich and famous Peter the Great kept a human zoo of freakish oddities and also enjoyed excising his subjects' teeth adding them to his vast assemblage The hapless Collyer brothers crammed their Manhattan brownstone to the brim and accidentally entombed themselves within it Unable to part with his shorn locks and nail clippings Howard Hughes stored them away for safekeeping Then there's China's remarkable Emperor Qin After he conquered all surrounding kingdoms he constructed 270 palaces to live in As if that weren't enough he built roads and dug irrigation canals alongside standardized laws established a system of weights and measures created a form of currency and then formalized the use of written characters While not a hoarder by today's standards he was quite possibly the first to promulgate the axiom He who dies with the most toys wins Eccentricity wealth and death aside each of the aforementioned had way too much stuff which is a problem familiar to most of us Dare to quest for answers as to why this is so and our acquisitive culture must be examined Harnessing humor and compassion My Husband s Under Here Somewhere does precisely that As the first of its kind this book of narrative non fiction looks at hoarding and collecting as part of a continuum And while many self help decluttering books and hoarding related memoirs as well as works dealing with Obsessive Compulsive Hoarding already exist none of them focus on the psycho spiritual ramifications of suffocating to death beneath heaps of possessions Hopefully this publication will appeal to hoarders and collectors as well as family friends and neighbors impacted by the hoarder s behaviors It s also for clinicians and public agencies in search of positive ways to respond Lastly it s for curious folks who seek to understand #artselfie Simon Castets,DIS,2014 artselfie opens with an incisive remark by Douglas Coupland who warns us that Selfies are mirrors we can freeze Selfies allow us to see how others look at themselves in a mirror making their modeling face when nobody s around except these days everybody s around everywhere all the time artselfie emerged in 2012 right as the recent photographic phenomenon known as the selfie reached its tipping point It was subsequently activated by New York based collective DIS as an aggregated mode of art tourism and documentation These selfies and their dialogue with art are an opportunity to revisit fundamental questions such as if art is a mirror what happens when we place ourselves between it and the camera The traditional trajectory from photographer to subject via the camera has been subverted and with it the nature of images and our perception of them The artselfie makes every participant both protagonist and collaborator consumer and producer Including an introduction by Douglas Coupland author of Generation X Tales for an Accelerated Culture and ruthless observer of contemporary society and a discussion between Simon Castets director of the Swiss Institute in New York and co founder of the 89 project and DIS artselfie allows us to experience how significant and seductive this viral phenomenon is Marketing and Managing Tourism
