Sequels Thomas Aldred, 1955 Serious about Series Silk Makowski, 1998-10-15

Teen paperback series routinely castigated or ignored by Young Adult librarians despite their popularity with young adults should be considered for inclusion in collections alongside other genres. In Serious about Series Makowski provides distinct criteria by which these series can be judged for quality within their genre and emphasizes them as an inexpensive way to fulfill patron needs and increase circulation by bringing young people often considered non readers into the library. Makowski's book is an insightful evaluation of over fifty popular series and includes an introduction that analyzes the teen series paperback genre and its significance for both teen reading practices and library services. Hundreds of titles are annotated in the book allowing librarians to develop in house bibliographies of favorite teen series titles making this a truly useful reference source for the young adult librarian.

Darkness Subverted Katrin Althans, 2010

English summary At the heart of the Gothic novel proper lies the discursive binary of self and other which in colonial literature was quickly filled with representations of the colonial master and his indigenous subject. Contemporary black Australian artists have usurped this colonial Gothic discourse torn it to pieces and finally transformed it into an Aboriginal Gothic. This study first develops the theoretical concept of an Aboriginal Gothic and then uses this term as a tool to analyse novels by Vivienne Cleven Mudrooroo Kim Scott Sam Watson and Alexis Wright as well as films directed by Beck Cole and Tracey Moffatt. It centres on the question of how a genuinely

European mode the Gothic can be permeated and thus digested by elements of indigenous Australian culture in order to portray the current situation of Aboriginal Australians and to celebrate a recovered cultural identity The American Cyclopaedia George Ripley, Charles Anderson Dana, 1883 Fang-tastic Fiction Patricia O'Brien Mathews, 2011 Mathews uses a limited definition of paranormal and examines works set for the most part in a relatively realistic modern world inhabited by both humans and paranormal beings New York Magazine , 1985-11-04 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
