On RACE and RACISM: Humanity's Bottom Line Lauren Joichin Nile, 2024-09-23 Lauren

Joichin Nile introduces what she believes is humanity's racial bottom line with a compelling account of her personal experiences growing up in 1950s and 60s segregated New Orleans. In so doing, she posits what she believes is humanity's universal racial story. Lauren explains how starting out from Southern Africa, fully formed human beings over thousands of years walked out of Africa, populated the entire rest of Planet Earth, and over 2,000 generations physically adapted to their new environments, gradually taking on the appearance of the many races of modern-day humanity, making all of us literally one biologically related human family. She then provides an abbreviated account of some of the most significant events of humanity's racial history and an explanation of how that history has affected the American racial present. She also analyzes a number of controversial topics, including whether there are truly superior and inferior races. Finally, Lauren shares what she believes are the specific actions that humanity must take in order to heal from our wretched racial past, realize that across the planet we all truly can love one another, and as a species, walk into a wiser, more empathetic, compassionate human future. Lauren Joichin Nile is an author, keynote speaker, trainer, and licensed attorney who specializes in assisting organizations in increasing their emotional intelligence, compassion, and productivity. The goal of her work with organizations is to help create environments in which understanding and kindness are valued, and as a result, every person is equally welcomed and uniformly appreciated, irrespective of all demographic differences. The goal of Lauren's speaking and training in the greater society is to help the human species grow in both wisdom and compassion.
