NOVEL OF THE HOUSEWIFE ASSASSIN SERIES Housewife assassin Donna Stone's mission goes under deep cover in order to investigate the resurrection of known terrorists who were thought to be long dead and buried President McKinley's Killer and the America He Left Behind Jessica Gunderson, 2018-01-01 It should have been a grand day at the Pan American Exhibition in Buffalo New York in 1901 President William McKinley shook hands with well wishers who had lined up to meet their popular leader But one man stepped forward with a pistol hidden under a handkerchief wrapped around his right hand Two shots rang out both striking McKinley in the abdomen As the nation puzzled over the shooter and the ease of his crime the president suffered for days before finally dying Vice President Theodore Roosevelt was sworn in as president becoming the youngest person ever to hold the job The country and the world would never be the same Remixing the Civil War Thomas J. Brown, 2011-11-10 In his book The Legacy of the Civil War Robert Penn Warren remarked that the Civil War is for the American imagination the great single event of our history This volume reconsiders whether fifty years later Warren's influential claim still holds true Essays from scholars in art literature and history examine how the Civil War is represented and interpreted in contemporary culture They look at the works of more than thirty artists and writers as well as multiple political movements to reveal the many and provocative ways in which Americans engage the Civil War today including chapters on the importance of Abraham Lincoln to Barack Obama's presidential campaign controversies over the Confederate flag and the proliferation of Juneteenth observances Special attention is paid to the works of African Americans and white southerners for whom the Civil War was a revolutionary and defining moment Such prominent scholars as Robert H Brinkmeyer Jr W Fitzhugh Brundage Kirk Savage and Elizabeth Young explore the works of major artists and less well known figures including Bobbie Ann Mason Kara Walker Dario Robleto and John Huddleston The authors repeatedly find that Americans today openly and playfully manipulate familiar images of the Civil War to explore the malleability of traditional social categories such as national identity gender and race With the sesquicentennial of the Civil War upon us this collection continues the conversation Warren began fifty years ago albeit in unorthodox and challenging ways to offer fresh and stimulating perspectives on the war's presence in the collective imagination of the nation The Housewife Assassin's Deep State Deep Fake Bake-Off Josie Brown, 2024-11-04 Murder Revenge Sex And some handy Thanksgiving tips IN BOOK 25 A NOVELLA IN THE HOUSEWIFE ASSASSIN SERIES When an act of terrorism turns the country's cellular devices into weapons of mass destruction and domestic airline travel into death flights espionage's deadliest duo Donna and Jack Craig's Thanksgiving gathering escalates from an already too full house and a possible culinary catastrophe to ground zero for an international incident when some unexpected guests turn up on their doorstep Under the Stars Dan White, 2025-06-25 Wide ranging in research enthusiasm and geography Dan White's Under the Stars reveals a vast population of nature seekers a country still in love with its wild places The definitive book on camping in America A passionate witty and deeply engaging examination of why humans venture into the wild Cheryl Strayed author of Wild From the Sierras to the Adirondacks and the

Here, George Washington Was Born Seth C. Bruggeman, 2011-08-15 In Here George Washington Was Born Seth C Bruggeman examines the history of commemoration in the United States by focusing on the George Washington Birthplace National Monument in Virginia's Northern Neck where contests of public memory have unfolded with particular vigor for nearly eighty years Washington left the birthplace with his family at a young age and rarely returned The house burned in 1779 and would likely have passed from memory but for George Washington Parke Custis who erected a stone marker on the site in 1815 creating the first birthplace monument in America Both Virginia and the U S War Department later commemorated the site but neither matched the work of a Virginia ladies association that in 1923 resolved to build a replica of the home The National Park Service permitted construction of the replica house until a shocking archeological discovery sparked protracted battles between the two organizations over the building's appearance purpose and claims to historical authenticity Bruggeman sifts through years of correspondence superintendent logs and other park records to reconstruct delicate negotiations of power among a host of often unexpected claimants on Washington's memory By paying close attention to costumes furnishings and other material culture he reveals the centrality of race and gender in the construction of Washington's public memory and reminds us that national parks have not always welcomed all Americans What's more Bruggeman offers the story of Washington's birthplace as a cautionary tale about the perils and possibilities of public history by asking why we care about famous birthplaces at all
