

An aerial photograph of a vast, dry lake bed under a dramatic sunset sky. In the foreground, a large, dark, concentric spiral artwork is etched into the cracked, reddish-brown earth. The spiral consists of many tight, dark rings, creating a powerful visual focal point. The ground around the spiral is uneven and textured with dry mud cracks. In the background, the calm water of a lake reflects the golden light of the setting sun, which is partially obscured by a layer of clouds. The horizon line is visible in the distance, with some low-lying land or islands. The overall mood is serene yet powerful, highlighting the intersection of natural beauty and human-made art.
