A Bibliography Of Modern History:

A Bibliography of Modern History , A Bibliography of Modern History John Roach,1991 A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins,American Historical Association,Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index A bibliography of British military history Anthony Bruce,2016-12-19 No detailed description available for A bibliography of British military history The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson,Ian Roy Willison,1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries A Bibliography of Modern History John Peter Charles ROACH,1968 The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature Frederick Wilse Bateson,1940 Bibliography of the History of Medicine , The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Bibliography of the History of Medicine National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1990 Printing History and Cultural Change Richard Wendorf,2022 This study provides one of the most detailed and comprehensive examinations ever devoted to a critical transformation in the material substance of the printed page it carries out this exploration in the history of the book moreover by embedding these typographical changes in the context of other cultural phenomena in eighteenth century Britain The gradual abandonment of pervasive capitalization italics and caps and small caps in books printed in London Dublin and the American colonies between 1740 and 1780 is mapped in five year increments which reveal that the appearance of the modern page in English began to emerge around 1765 This descriptive and analytical account focuses on poetry classical texts Shakespeare contemporary plays the novel the Bible the Book of Common Prayer sermons and religious writings newspapers magazines anthologies government publications and private correspondence it also examines the reading public canon formation editorial theory and practice and the role of typography in textual interpretation These changes in printing conventions are then compared to other aspects of cultural change the adoption of the Gregorian calendar in 1752 the publication of Johnson s Dictionary in 1755 the transformation of shop signs and the imposition of house numbers in London beginning in 1762 and the evolution of the English language and of English prose style This study concludes that this fundamental shift in printing conventions was closely tied to a pervasive interest in refinement regularity and standardization in the second half of the century and that it was therefore an important component in the self conscious process of modernizing British culture publisher s website A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse,2023-11-15 Japanese Studies from Pre-History to 1990 Richard Perren,1992 New Historical Atlas and General History Robert Henlopen Labberton,1890 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1940 Australian national bibliography ,1961 Catalogue Nevins Memorial Library (Methuen, Mass.),1887 Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia,1988 The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature Roberto Gonzalez Echevarría,Enrique Pupo-Walker,1996-09-19 The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature is by far the most comprehensive work of its kind ever written Its three volumes cover the whole sweep of Latin American literature including Brazilian from pre Colombian times to the present and contain chapters on Latin American writing in the USA Volume 3 is devoted partly to the history of Brazilian literature from the earliest writing through the colonial period and the Portuguese language traditions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and partly also to an extensive bibliographical section in which annotated reading lists relating to the chapters in all three volumes of The Cambridge History of Latin American Literature are presented These bibliographies are a unique feature of the History further enhancing its immense value as a reference work The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 2, 1660-1800 George Watson,Ian R. Willison,1971-07-02 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 2 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries
