IMAGINATION: A STUDY OF THE NOVELS OF CHINUA ACHEBE AND NGŪGĪ WA THIONG'O Dr. Amna Shamim, 2017-03-23 The focus of this book is upon the changing perception of women in African society and their portrayal over different periods in the novels of Chinua Achebe and Ngugi wa Thiong'o the writers who intriguingly wrote on the constant changing role of African women in Igbo and Gikuyu clans The book discusses the image of African women entrapped in double jeopardy in both traditional and modern Africa There has been a remarkable transformation in the representation of women from the early novels to the later novels of both the writers that has been studied in this book from close quarters The approach and technique of the novelists in projecting their female characters has also been analyzed The novels of both the writers marked a sea change in the thinking and perception of Westerners with reference to Africa and its people This work is devoted to the exploration of the image of women in the East and West African societies through the selected novels of Chinua Achebe and Ngugi wa Thiong'o The Sexual Life of English Shefali Chandra, 2012-05-02 Chandra explores how English became an Indian language during the colonial period of 1850 1930 Using archival and literary sources she focuses on elite language education for girls and women Moors, Mansions, and Museums Zuzanna Jakubowski, 2010 Originally presented as the author's thesis master's Universiteit Potsdam 2007 The Beautiful and the Monstrous Amaleena Damlé, Aurélie L'Hostis, 2010 Modern French Identities focuses on the French and Francophone writing of the twentieth and twenty first centuries whose formal experiments and revisions of genre have combined to create an entirely new set of literary forms The series publishes studies of individual authors and artists comparative studies and interdisciplinary projects

Gender and Change in Archaeology Nona Palincas, Ana Cristina Martins, 2024-03-29 This volume presents the various ways in which the study of gender makes a difference in archaeological research the archaeological academic milieu and the wider public's thinking about gender and considers avenues of future development It addresses questions such as why gender matters for archaeology while examining gender from various angles including aspects such as subjectivity embodiment diet multifaceted perspectives and intersectionality and in various periods prehistory Ancient Egypt Roman antiquity the Middle Ages and the modern and contemporary periods It also discusses the relationship between archaeology and other academic fields involving the study of gender as well as representations and debates on gender in the media The theme gender and change in archeology emerged out of concerns voiced within the Archaeology and Gender in Europe AGE working community of the European Association of Archaeologists EAA with respect to the future of gender archaeology This book unites researchers of gender archaeology from two perspectives that of gender archaeologists from academic milieus where the study of gender has long been established and who in the meantime came to feel that this avenue of inquiry had become predictable and lost its provocative power and that of gender archaeologists from countries where this field was only recently introduced and who while more enthusiastic about the utility of gender archaeology are concerned with how to disseminate it among skeptical peers Both groups of archaeologists mainly argue that four decades on the study of gender in archaeology is still able to generate considerable change in our understanding of past and present day societies The volume is primarily of interest to archaeologists and researchers of gender studies Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Linguistics and Culture (ICLC-4 2023) Muhammad Hasyim, 2024-05-22 This is an open access book Research and teaching activities in the fields of language literature and culture are still being carried out even during the Covid 19 era that hit the world It is undeniable that the results of research and learning of language literature and culture at this time were a bit hindered because most activities were carried out from home During the Covid 19 period which started in early 2020 practically more activities were done at home Likewise institutions during the Covid 19 era were carried out online For example the Language Agency continues to carry out activities but it is carried out online such as online webinars that contribute to the wider community in accordance with the duties and functions of the Language Agency carried out using a hybrid method or completely online Various events are packaged creatively and innovatively to produce a new spirit in speaking Research and teaching of language literature and culture during the Covid 19 period resulted in many amazing innovations and creativity in line with technological developments Covid 19 has inspired many in research on language literature and culture In the field of language you can see research on the language used in Covid 19 such as said cases of suspected respiratory tract infection ODP People Under Monitoring confirmed cases a person who is late known to be infected with Covid 19 etc That s the content Content on YouTube about the use of language is a hot object of research to research In terms of culture the Government is making various efforts to break the chain of the spread of the Covid 19 pandemic in a massive and systematic manner Covid 19 is not only a deadly virus but has a domino effect that is also terrible One of the policies used by the government in preventing and controlling the spread of Covid 19 is implementing the Large Scale Social Restrictions PSBB policy As an investment culture also requires strategies and enablers so that it is able to achieve the target of the happiness and welfare of the Indonesian people This strategy is implemented through providing for a diversity of cultural expressions developing cultural practices utilizing cultural promotion objects accelerating institutional reform and increasing the government's role as a facilitator Teaching issues especially teaching methods of language literature and culture need to be highlighted in terms of IT based innovation and creativity after Covid 19 How especially teaching methods in applying the material Research on learning methods has also been carried out a lot especially methods that focus on students entering the new normal era or the new era after Covid 19 with innovative research and learning of language literature and culture It is interesting to reveal a major event namely the 3rd International Conference on Linguistics and Cultural Studies sponsored by the Faculty of Cultural Sciences Hasanuddin University Makassar Barbara

Practice E-Book Tim Dornan, Karen V. Mann, Albert J J A Scherpbier, John A. Spencer, 2011-12-02 Medical Education Theory and Practice is a new text linking the theory and the practice for graduate students and educators who want to go beyond the basics The scholarship of medical education is above all a practice but one that has a strong theoretical foundation Neither theory nor practice stand still and both are grounded in research The novelty of this book lies in its interweaving of practice theory innovation and research The book starts with a theorised contemporary overview of the field Next it explores the theoretical foundations of medical education in depth The remainder of the book reviews a whole range of educational contexts processes and outcomes This work has been edited by a distinguished international team of medical educationalists and written by equally accomplished authors from across the globe representing a spectrum of disciplines This will be an invaluable text for all Masters Students in health professions education as well as PhD students and education researchers wanting a background to the discipline Educators and medical students will also find it a very useful resource Written by key figures in medical educational research combined with a strong editorial influence from the international editorial team The text has a strong evidence based approach that is fully cognisant of research methodology issues The book provides a scholarly explanation on the topic rather than aiming to say the last word Written throughout in a clear and comprehensible style The content is extensively referenced with additional suggestions for further reading The English Handbook William Whitla,2009-12-01 The English Handbook A Guide to Literary Studies is a comprehensive textbook providing essential practical and analytical reading and writing skills for literature students at all levels With advice and information on fundamental methods of literary analysis and research Whitla equips students with the knowledge and tools essential for advanced literary study Includes traditional close reading strategies integrated with newer critical theory ranging from gender and genre to post structuralism and post colonialism with examples from Beowulf to Atwood folk ballads to Fugard and Christopher Marlowe to Conrad s Marlow Draws on a wide range of resources from print to contemporary electronic media Supplies a companion website with chapter summaries charts examples web links and suggestions for further study

What's Right with the Trinity? Hannah Bacon,2016-02-11 The doctrine of the Trinity poses a series of problems for feminist theology At a basic level the androcentric nature of trinitarian language serves to promote the male as more fully in the image of God and as the archetype of humanity pushing women to the margins of personhood It is no surprise then that feminist scholarship on this doctrine has often focused on what s wrong with the Trinity setting out the problems raised by the use of traditional androcentric trinitarian language This book brings together a discussion of feminist theological methodology with a critical exploration of the doctrine of the Trinity Focussing on what s right with the Trinity as opposed to what s wrong with the Trinity it considers the usefulness of this doctrine for feminist theology today It replaces a stress on trinitarian language with an emphasis on trinitarian thought exploring how we might effectively think rather than speak God in light of feminist concerns In particular it asks how a trinitarian understanding of God might support and be supported by key values which underpin a feminist way of doing theology specifically values which underpin the methodological use of women s experience in feminist theology The central argument is that thinking God as Trinity need not serve to reinforce patriarchal values and ideals but may in fact promote the subjectivity and personhood of women Social Sciences and Cultural Studies Asunción Lopez-Varela Azcárate,2012-09-19 This is a unique and groundbreaking collection of questions and answers coming from higher education institutions on diverse fields and across a wide spectrum of countries and cultures It creates routes for further innovation collaboration amidst the Sciences both Natural and Social and the Humanities and the private and the public sectors of society The chapters speak across socio cultural concerns education welfare and artistic sectors under the common desire for direct responses in more effective ways by means of interaction across societal structures Feminist Afterlives of the Witch Brydie Kosmina, 2023-03-31 The book investigates the witch as a key rhetorical symbol in twentieth and twenty first century feminist memory politics activism and popular culture The witch demonstrates the inheritance of paradoxical pasts traversing numerous ideological memoryscapes This book is an examination of the ways that the witch has been deployed by feminist activists and writers in their political efforts in the twentieth century and how this has indelibly affected cultural memories of the witch and the witch trials and how this plays out in popular culture representations of the symbol through the twentieth and twenty first centuries Consequently this book considers the relationship between popular culture and media activist politics and cultural memory Using hauntological theories of memory and temporality and literary screen and cultural studies methodologies this book considers how popular culture remembers misremembers and forgets usable pasts and the uses and misuses of these memories for feminist politics Given the ubiquity of the witch in popular culture politics and activism since 2016 this book is a timely examination of the range of meanings inherent to the figure and is an important study of how cultural symbols like the witch inherit paradoxical memories histories and politics The book will be valuable for scholars across disciplines including witchcraft studies feminist philosophy and history memory studies and popular culture studies Encyclopedia of Gender and Information Technology Trauth, Eileen M., 2006-06-30 This two volume set includes 213 entries with over 4 700 references to additional works on gender and information technology Provided by publisher Methods in the Philosophy of Science Sophie J Veigl, Adrian Currie, 2025-07-15 A guidebook to methods and methodology encouraging deeper engagement across the philosophy of science and beyond The last twenty years have seen multiple methodological revolutions in the philosophy of science There has been increased diversity concerning the questions asked who asks those questions who the relevant audiences are and what the techniques and tools involved are In Methods in the Philosophy of Science A User's Guide Sophie Veigl and Adrian Currie introduce this range of methods through both practical advice and philosophical reflection Each chapter introduces the reader to a method or set of methods in the philosophy of science discusses its advantages and limitations and provides practical guidance on how to learn skills relevant to applying the method The volume fulfills several critical roles First by introducing and discussing methods in the philosophy of science the collection increases philosophers awareness of methodological options of particular importance for younger scholars who are often not exposed to the diversity of practice Second the collection's practical focus will aid established philosophers in diversifying their own methodological toolkits Third collecting this diversity serves as a ground for philosophical reflection on what we as philosophers take ourselves to be capable of Fourth the collection hopes to increase interdisciplinary links between philosophy and other fields by laying clear the methodological continuity and complement between them Irish Literature in the Celtic Tiger Years 1990 to 2008 Susan Cahill, 2011-06-09 When Irish culture and economics underwent rapid changes during the Celtic Tiger Years Anne Enright Colum McCann and others began writing Now that period of Irish history has closed this study uncovers how their writing captured that unique historical moment By showing how N Dhuibhne s novels act as considered arguments against attempts to disavow the past how McCann s protagonists come to terms with their history and how Enright s fiction explores connections and relationships with the female body Susan Cahill s study pinpoints common concerns for contemporary Irish writers the relationship between the body memory and history between generations and between past and present Cahill is able to raise wider questions about Irish culture by looking specifically at how writers engage with the body In exploring the writers concern with embodied histories related questions concerning gender race and Irishness are brought to the fore Such interrogations of corporeality alongside history are imperative making this a significant contribution to ongoing debates of feminist theory in Irish Studies Rethinking Character in Contemporary British Theatre Cristina Delgado-García, 2015-11-13 The category of theatrical character has been swiftly dismissed in the academic reception of no longer dramatic texts and performances However claims on the dissolution of character narrowly demarcate what a subject is and how it may appear This volume unmoors theatre scholarship from the regulatory ideals of liberal humanism stretching the notion of character to encompass and illuminate otherwise unaccounted for subjects aesthetic strategies and political gestures in recent theatre works To this aim contemporary philosophical theories of subjectivation European theatre studies and experimental script led work produced in Britain since the late 1990s are mobilised as discussants on the question of subjectivity Four contemporary playtexts and their performances are examined in depth Sarah Kane s Crave and 4 48 Psychosis Ed Thomas s Stone City Blue and Tim Crouch s ENGLAND Through these case studies Delgado Garc a demonstrates alternative ways of engaging theoretically with character and elucidating a range of subjective figures beyond identity and individuality Alongside these analyses the book traces a large body of work that has experimented with speech attribution since the early twentieth century This is a timely contribution to contemporary theatre scholarship which demonstrates that character remains a malleable and politically salient notion in which understandings of subjectivity are still being negotiated
