Unbroken Ruined 2 By Paula Morris:

Unbroken: A Ruined Novel Paula Morris, 2013-02-01 Welcome back to New Orleans Where the streets swirl with jazz and beauty Where the houses breathe with ghosts A year ago Rebecca Brown escaped death in a New Orleans cemetery Now she has returned to this haunting city She is looking forward to seeing Anton Grey the boy who may or may not have her heart But she also meets a ghost a troubled boy who insists only she can help him Soon Rebecca finds herself embroiled in another murder mystery from more than a century ago But as she tries to right wrongs she finds more questions than answers Is she putting her friends and herself in danger Can she trust this new ghost And has she stumbled into something much bigger and more serious than she understands

The New Orleans of Fiction James A. Kaser, 2014-07-29 The importance of New Orleans in American culture has made the city's place in the American imagination a crucial topic for literary scholars and cultural historians While databases of bibliographical information on New Orleans centered fiction are available they are of little use to scholars researching works written before the 1980s In The New Orleans of Fiction A Research Guide James A. Kaser provides detailed synopses for more than 500 works of fiction significantly set in New Orleans and published between 1836 and 1980 The synopses include plot summaries names of major characters and an indication of physical settings An appendix provides bibliographical information for works dating from 1981 well into the 21st century while a biographical section provides basic information about the authors some of whom are obscure and would be difficult to find in other sources Written to assist researchers in locating works of fiction for analysis the plot summaries highlight ways in which the works touch on major aspects of social history and cultural studies i.e. class ethnicity gender immigrant experience and race The book is also a useful reader advisory tool for librarians and readers who want to identify materials for leisure reading particularly since genre juvenile and young adult fiction as well as literary fiction are included
