Triage Scott Anderson, 1999 Hit by an artillery shell in Kurdistan photo journalist Mark Walsh finds himself in a primitive hospital Days before his colleague Colin had been photographing the appalling conditions there Returning to New York Mark is nursed back to health but the question remains where is Colin Triage, Scott Anderson Ieva Kains, 2001

Triage Scott Anderson, 1999-11-23 A combat photographer returns to New York traumatized by his experience in a war between Iraqis and Kurds He is treated by his girlfriend's father a doctor who participated in the Spanish Civil War and who is familiar with survivor's guilt Films in Health Sciences Education. Learning through moving images Kieran Donaghy, Maria Teresa Icart Isern, 2012-11 Writing = Learning Brenton Doecke, Graham Parr, 2005 Affirming the professional knowledge practice and engagement of teachers in the face of recurring media attacks on their profession this examination of the role of writing in various teaching and learning contexts by English teachers provides richly reflective perspectives on the relationship between the writing and learning of both students and professionals

The Man Who Tried to Save the World Scott Anderson, 2000-05-16 A swashbuckling Texan a teller of tall tales a womanizer and a renegade Fred Cuny spent his life in countries rent by war famine and natural disasters saving many thousands of lives through his innovative and sometimes controversial methods of relief work Cuny earned his nickname Master of Disaster for his exploits in Kurdistan Somalia and Bosnia But when he arrived in the rogue Russian republic of Chechnya in the spring of 1995 raring to go and eager to put his ample funds from George Soros to good use he found himself in the midst of an unimaginably savage war of independence unlike any he had ever before encountered Shortly thereafter he disappeared in the war rocked highlands never to be seen again Who was Cuny really working for Was he a CIA spy Who killed him and why In search of the answers Scott Anderson traveled to Chechnya on a hazardous journey that started as a magazine assignment and ended as a personal mission The result is a galvanizing adventure story a chilling picture of the new world order and a tour de force of literary journalism The Guardian Index , 2000

Jarhead Anthony Swofford, 2005-11-11 Anthony Swofford's Jarhead is the first Gulf War memoir by a frontline infantry marine and it is a searing unforgettable narrative When the marines or jarheads as they call themselves were sent in 1990 to Saudi Arabia to fight the Iraqis Swofford was there with a hundred pound pack on his shoulders and a sniper's rifle in his hands It was one misery upon another He lived in sand for six months his girlfriend back home betrayed him for a scrawny hotel clerk he was punished by boredom and fear he considered suicide he pulled a gun on one of his fellow marines and he was shot at by both Iraqis and Americans At the end of the war Swofford hiked for miles through a landscape of incinerated Iraqi soldiers and later was nearly killed in a booby trapped Iraqi bunker Swofford weaves this experience of war with vivid accounts of boot camp which included physical abuse by his drill instructor reflections on the mythos of the marines and remembrances of battles with lovers and family As engagement with the Iraqis draws closer he is forced to consider what it is to be an American a soldier a son of a soldier and a man Unlike the real time print and television coverage of the Gulf War which was highly scripted by the Pentagon Swofford's account subverts the conventional wisdom that U S military interventions are now merely surgical insertions of superior forces that result in few American casualties Jarhead insists we remember the Americans who are in fact wounded or killed the fields of smoking enemy corpses left behind and the continuing difficulty that American soldiers have reentering civilian life A harrowing yet inspiring portrait of a tormented consciousness struggling for inner peace Jarhead will elbow for room on that short shelf of American war classics that includes Philip Caputo's A Rumor of War and Tim O'Brien's The Things They Carried and be admired not only for the raw beauty of its prose but also for the depth of its pained heart The Best American Travel Writing 2002 Frances Mayes, Jason Wilson, 2002 This third volume in the series
