Linguistic and Literary Revision of Cultural Paradigms Ettore Finazzi-Agrò, 2018-11-02 This book draws an updated Euro American conceptual map starting from a limited number of strategic terms whose meanings today are judged univocal and permanent while in fact daily use has turned them into common sense depriving them of their ambiguity an original feature of language particularly relevant when it comes to literary use By re-examining the proper noun for each of the selected notions the contributors common intent is to shed light on their polysemous nature and linguistic fluidity in spite of the common tendency towards simplification and homogeneity imposed by hegemonic cultural paradigms Along this line the

The Ancient Mediterranean Sea in Modern Visual and Performing Arts Rosario Rovira Guardiola,Filippo Carlà-Uhink,Martin Lindner,2019-05-30 When thinking about the Mediterranean Fernand Braudel s haunting words resound

like an echo of the sea and its millenary history From Prehistory until today the Mediterranean has been setting witness and protagonist of mythical adventures of encounters with the Other of battles and the rise and fall of cultures and empires of the destinies of humans Braudel's appeal for a long duration history of the Mediterranean challenged traditional views that often present it as a sea fragmented and divided through periods This volume proposes a journey into the bright and dark sides of the ancient Mediterranean through the kaleidoscopic gaze of artists who from the Renaissance to the 21st century have been inspired by its myths and history The view of those who imagined and recreated the past of the sea has largely contributed to the shaping of modern cultures which are inexorably rooted and embedded in Mediterranean traditions The contributions look at modern visual reinterpretations of ancient myths fiction and history and pay particular attention to the theme of sea travel and travellers which since Homer's Odyssey has become the epitome of the discovery of new worlds of cultural exchanges and a metaphor of personal developments and metamorphoses
