KENGO KUMAANTI-OBJECT:
THE DISSOLUTION AND
DISINTEGRATION OF ARCHITECTURETRANSLATED BY HIROSHI WATANABE

PREFACE

My purpose in writing this book is to criticise architecture that is self-centred and coercive. I am opposed to the presence and atmosphere of certain works of architecture that I have chosen to call objects. Whether or not a building is an object is determined by its character rather than its architectural style.

To be precise, an object is a form of material existence distinct from its immediate environment.

I do not deny that all buildings, as points of singularity created by humankind in the environment, are to some extent objects. However, buildings that are deliberately made distinct from their environment are very different from those that attempt to mitigate this isolation, and the difference is perceptible to everyone who experiences them.

I set out to criticise buildings that are isolated from their environment and eventually came to realise that all architectural styles are open to criticism.
