

The A.A. Service Manual

Two titles in a single booklet.

The A.A. Service Manual opens with history of A.A. services, then explains the General Service Conference structure and its year-round importance. Chapters cover the roles of GSRs, DCMs, delegates, directors and trustees, as well as what happens at GSO and Grapevine.

The Twelve Concepts for World Service, written by A.A. co-founder Bill W., are an interpretation of A.A.'s world service structure as it emerged through A.A.'s early history and experience.

needs of individuals with visual and multiple disabilities who may not be able to follow all parts of a traditional academic curriculum As educators our primary goal should be to provide students with skills that will be of use throughout their lives Skill acquisition often takes longer for students with multiple disabilities and they are not always able to generalize them into other settings For this reason it is important to identify skills that will help prepare students to lead the most independent lives possible and to provide many opportunities to practice them Madam Secretary Frances Perkins George W.

Martin,2019-09-23 Frances Perkins 1880 1965 attended Mount Holyoke College majoring in physics In her final semester she visited mills along the Connecticut River to see working conditions as part of a class in American economic history She was horrified Instead of teaching until she married she earned a masters degree in social work from Columbia University In 1910 Perkins became Executive Secretary of the New York City Consumers League She campaigned for sanitary regulations for bakeries fire protection for factories and legislation to limit the working hours for women and children in factories to 54 hours per week She worked mainly in New York State s capital Albany where she befriended politicians and learned how to lobby On March 25 1911 Perkins was with friends in New York City when they heard fire engines Running to see what was happening they witnessed one of the worst workplace disasters in US history the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire killed 146 people mostly young women and girls Perkins saw fire escapes collapse firemen s ladders unable to reach the women trapped by the flames and 47 workers leap to their deaths from the 8th and 9th floors A year earlier these same women and girls had fought for and won the 54 hour work week and other benefits that Perkins had championed Perkins at that moment resolved to make sure their deaths would not be in vain Perkins became the secretary of a committee formed to study reforms in safety in factories Besides fire safety the committee took on all other health issues they could think of By that time a respected expert witness Perkins helped draft the most comprehensive set of laws regarding workplace health and safety in the country Other states started copying New York s new laws to protect workers Perkins continued to work in New York for decades until she was asked by President Elect Franklin D Roosevelt in 1933 to serve as Secretary of Labor She told him only if he agreed with her goals 40 hour work week minimum wage unemployment and worker s compensation abolition of child labor federal aid to the states for unemployment Social Security a revitalized federal employment service and universal health insurance He agreed and Perkins became America's first woman Cabinet member serving as Secretary of Labor from 1933 until 1945 One of her cabinet colleagues was Interior Secretary Harold L Ickes Similar to what she achieved in New York State her successes became the New Deal and changed the country and its workers forever George Martin has produced an almost totally absorbing book one that not only brings Miss Perkins to life but also one that quivers with the excitement that the New Deal generated in most Americans Mr Martin's book is well researched Madam Secretary is full of rewards not the least of them being that it gives stature to a woman Americans will be richer for knowing Alden Whitman The New York Times A sturdy biography of the first woman Cabinet member The New York Times George Martin's volume is more than a biography he has produced a volume that should rank high in the current literature of political science Isador Lubin Monthly Labor Review A rich scholarly account of the life of this remarkable woman the biography has an immediate conversational almost autobiographical quality Ronald L Filippelli Business History Review A remarkably personal look at a very private woman a comprehensive picture of Frances Perkins Sarah A Morrison Social Service Review Martin does full justice to Perkins abilities as administrator legislative guide and public spokesman a valuable book Kirkus Reviews
