Apologetic for Filioque in Medieval Theology Dennis Ngien, 2005 This study examines the defence of the filioque clause by four medieval theologians in the Catholic Church and seeks to show why it mattered so much to them The book opens with a history of the filioque to provide the essential background Ngien then carefully sets each theologian's rational defence within the broader context making this book much more than a discussion of the one contentious clause but also a general introduction to medieval conceptions of the Trinity BOOK JACKET Speculum Sermonis Georgiana Donavin, Cary J. Nederman, Richard J. Deane-Drummond, 2017-09-22 This book serves as an introduction to the burgeoning field of ecotheology illustrating both its variety and its commonality across different Christian theological divides Some of the questions addressed in this short book include the following How can the Bible still make sense in the context of climate change and biodiversity loss Who on earth is Jesus Christ and what does he mean for us in today's world How can Christians be faithful to their traditions while responding to pressing calls to be engaged in environmental activism What is the relationship between theory and practice and local as well as global demands and how is this relationship expressed in different ecclesial settings How can we encourage each other to develop a sense of the earth as divine gift Written in clear accessible style this book walks readers through difficult concepts and shows the way different sources in Christian theology have responded to one of the most significant cultural issues of our time God at Play Daniel Soars, 2025-07-01 The first comparative treatment of the topic of l l in Hindu and Christian traditions this volume explores what it means to consider divine and human action under the categories of play wit drama grace and compassion God at Play presents a theological exploration of the multifaceted motif of l l across diverse Hindu and Christian landscapes and its wide ranging connections to divine and human creativity Given its ubiquity in Hindu theologies and life forms l l offers a rich comparative framework for exploring certain ways of understanding divine and human action as expressed in Hindu and Christian sacred texts philosophical theology and ritual practices Though l l is often interpreted simply as play the essays in this volume reflect a far richer semantic and conceptual field ranging from spontaneity and gratuitousness through joy and humor to mercy and compassion By focusing on the different contexts in which l l is found in Hindu traditions and resisting any uniform translation of the term the contributors to this volume avoid the risk of using predominantly western or Christian categories to understand the Hindu other The volume thus explores how l l functions in a variety of distinctive philosophical theological and devotional ways across Hindu traditions and listens for echoes in Christian understandings of the gratuitousness of the created order in relation to God God at Play is a genuine experiment in deep learning across traditions Each chapter reflects on what is learned by taking l l as the category of comparison and invites the reader to think about what these conversations add confirm or change in relation to earlier twentieth century scholarship on play not least in terms of what difference it might make to understand human life as an imitation and a participation in the divine life of a playful deity Interface Between Igbo Theology and Christianity Akuma-Kalu Njoku,Elochukwu Uzukwu,2014-10-21 Interface between Igbo Theology and Christianity is a timely book that provides new scholarly thinking concerning the convergence of Christianity and Igbo Traditional Religion taking place in the Igbo culture area This book a fruit of multidisciplinary conversation among Igbo scholars and Igbophiles offers concepts themes issues and case studies with deep ethnographic details some of which do not exist anywhere else in print It is a major statement of how modern Igbo scholars social scientists philosophers theologians liturgists and active pastors and parish priests understand the intersection of Igbo Traditional Religion and Christianity in postcolonial Nigeria The editors and authors of the chapters of this book draw from their wealth of experience to offer to students scholars researchers community based organizations and NGOs and practitioners in interfaith dialogue a must have manual to engage in and develop mutual respect and trust among Christian denominations and between them and Igbo Traditional Religion This book will serve as a blueprint for a deep dialogue among the Igbo in both city and rural settings in the context of clan and community life context and in the Christian parish setting The book will certainly appeal to numerous communities in Africa wishing to share similar local experiences and collective memories but which do not have the channels to talk about themselves in scholarly writing Medieval Science, Technology, and Medicine Thomas F.
